Petersbourg, April 3.

THE Czarina's Coronation remains fixed to the 22d Inſtant, and it is ſaid that after that Solemnity her Majeſty will ſet out on a Sort of Pilgrimage to a Monaſtry at Kiow in the Ukraine, 700 Engliſh Miles from Moſcow. This Piece of Devotion has been uſually practiſed by all her Predeceſſors upon their Acceſſion to the Throne, but they have uſually contented themſelves to go to a Monaſtry nearer the Place of their Reſidence. There are ſeveral different Reports concerning the Return of the Court to this City, but it is doubted whether it will come back before the Month of October or November.

Placentia, April 16, N. S. The Spaniſh Army continues in the Eccleſiaſtical State, the Head Quarters at Rimini, and has only moved ſome few Miles nearer Bologna, as the Want of Forage and Means of Subſiſtance required it. The Deſertion among them is beyond Expreſſion, and in a Month's Time no leſs than 600 are come hither. By an exact Regiſter kept at Modena ſince their Landing, above 6500 are come through that City. The Auſtrian Forces, on the other Hand, are ſtill in their Quarters in the Modeneſe, Marſhal Traun having fixed his at Correggio, and his Troops, as well as the King of Sardinia's, are abundantly provided with every thing neceſſary, notwithſtanding the Scarcity of Forage, which is owing to the exact Diſcipline and Oeconomy that is obſerved: They both together amount to 30 or 32000 Men, and the ſeveral Regiments may be ſaid to be compleat, having hitherto ſuffered little or nothing by Deſertion.

Florence, April 17. By Letters which were brought to Leghorn by his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Garland, dated the 11th of March, O. S. at Port Mahon, there is Advice that Vice Admiral Haddock's Squadron was then entirely refitted, and ready to put to Sea; that the Admiral had already ſtationed all his Cruizers in the moſt advantageous Poſts, to obſerve the Motions of the Spaniards. And that a Tender belonging to the Spaniſh Admiral with 60 Men and an Officer on board, had been taken by one of the ſaid Cruizers.

Vienna, April 21. General Nadaſty having advanced with the Huſſars near to Olmutz, was faced with a Body of about 8000 Pruſſians, who after ſome Skirmiſhes retired towards Night into the Town; upon which, and the farther Report of a Perſon who eſcaped out of the Place, as if the ſaid Corps had paſſed thro' Olmutz with a Deſign to poſt themſelves at or about Sternberg, at the Foot of the Mountains, after having left a Garriſon of 2000 Foot and 1200 Horſe, Prince Charles, in order to take his Meaſures more ſurely, had only made half a March the next Day, ſo that he will not have been before Olmutz, till as Yeſterday. In the mean while he had ordered the great Artillery from Brinn. A Courier in his Paſſage hither found the Mountains between Moravia and Sileſia lined with Peaſants upon the Point of being joined by a Body of Huſſars, and the Paſſages embaraſſed with Trees and other Impediments. He left about 8000 Pruſſians in Olmutz, and Prince Charles within a German Mile of that Place, intending as the ſaid Courier reports, to attack them as Yeſterday.

Copenhagen, April 28. The Commiſſion for examining the State of the Navy is now ended, and upon the Report made from it to the King of Denmark, his Majeſty declared his Approbation of the Conduct of Count Daneskiold in the Direction of the Marine Affairs, confirmed him in his Poſt, and ſettled on him an extraordinary Penſion of 7000 Rixdollars for Life.

Leipzig, April 30. On the 25th the Saxon Army was near Kuttenbourg, marching towards Leuthmeritz. The King of Pruſſia is arrived at Konigin-Gratz; Marſhal Broglio continues at Piſeck with his Corps, and it is ſaid, that all the freſh Reinforcements from France ought to be at Donawerth the 5th of next Month. The Court return'd Yeſterday to Dreſden. It is written from Berlin, that the King of Pruſſia intends to entertain the King of Poland at Neuſtadt near Glogaw, as his Poliſh Majeſty goes to Frauſtadt.

Hambourg, May 1, N. S. Count Sparr, who came here to inliſt Sailors for the Swediſh Fleet, is returning home, having engaged about 200 Men, which are already ſent off for Lubeck.

Hague, May 4. This Morning Baron Reiſchach delivered a Memorial to the States, in Refutation of what had been aſſerted by ſome Miniſters of the Allies here, as if the Queen of Hungary pretended to engage her Allies to ſupport her Exceptions to the Election of the Elector of Bavaria, as well as her Rights to her Father's Succeſſion. Prince Charles certainly got to Olmutz by the 21ſt paſt, where it is ſaid there is a Garriſon of 8000 Pruſſians. We hear that Marſhal Khevenhuller has abandoned the Bridge at Deckendorff, and the whole Courſe of the Iſſet, having poſted himſelf upon the Inn for the Defence of Paſſau. By the laſt Letters from Italy it is written, that the King of Sardinia was expected to enter the Modeneſe on the 23d paſt, and that the Spaniards were aſſembling at Fayenza
